v.

partnership, MICHAEL SCOTT HUNT, individually and in his official capacity, and JANALIE ANN HENRIQUES, individually and in her official capacity,

Defendants.

Case No. CV 11-06371

COMPLAINT

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

15 United States Code § 1692 et seq.

Plaintiff, JULIA PAVLOVIC, based on information and belief and investigation of counsel, except for those allegations which pertain to the named Plaintiff or her attorneys (which are alleged on personal knowledge), hereby makes the following allegations:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is an action for statutory damages, attorney fees and costs brought by an individual consumer for Defendants' violations of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1692, et seq. (hereinafter "FDCPA") which prohibits debt collectors from engaging in abusive, deceptive and unfair practices.

b. Existing laws and procedures for redressing these injuries are inadequate to protect consumers.

d. Abusive debt collection practices are carried on to a substantial extent in interstate commerce and through means and instrumentalities of such commerce. Even where abusive debt collection practices are purely intrastate in character, they nevertheless directly affect interstate commerce.

e. It is the purpose of this title to eliminate abusive debt collection practices by debt collectors, to insure that those debt collectors who refrain from using abusive debt collection practices are not competitively disadvantaged, and to promote consistent State action to protect consumers against debt collection abuses.

3. Jurisdiction of this Court arises under 15 U.S.C. § 1692k(d) and 28 U.S.C. § 1337.

4. This action arises out of Defendants' violations of the Fair Debt Collection 15 U.S.C. § 1692 et seq. ("FDCPA").

III. VENUE

5. Venue in this judicial district is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), in that a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred in this judicial district. Venue is also proper in this judicial district pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1692k(d), in that Defendants transact business in this judicial district and the violations of the FDCPA complained of occurred in this judicial district.

Account Number: 4428135540492774
Balance due as of July 23, 2010: $19,135.84

Our client, CITIBANK (SOUTH DAKOTA) N.A., has engaged this law firm to make demand for payment in full on your account referenced above. Your account is in default and has been closed, and formal demand is now being made for the entire outstanding balance. As of the date of this letter, your total debt is $19,135.84.

If you want to resolve this matter, you may pay the outstanding balance stated above to satisfy your account or contact us at 1(800) 496-5048 and arrange a payment plan that is acceptable to our client.

Our client considers this to be a serious matter. A legal proceeding is a matter of public record. If a lawsuit is filed, the local court could enter a judgment against you for the entire balance of your account plus, to the extent provided in your account agreement and permitted by law, attorney's fees, court costs.

Federal law gives you 30 days after you receive this letter to dispute the validity of the debt or any part of it. If you do not dispute the validity of the debt, or any part of it, within that period, we will assume that the debt is valid. If you dispute the debt, or any part of it, in writing - by mailing a notice to this firm to that effect on or before the 30th day following the date you receive this letter - we will obtain and mail to you proof (verification) of the debt. And if, within the same period, you request in writing the name and address of the original creditor (if different from our client), we will furnish you with that information too. Upon receipt of your written dispute, all efforts to collect this debt will be suspended until we mail any required information to you. Our client will wait until sufficient time has elapsed for this firm to be able to receive a written notice of dispute from you - even if you mail it on the 30th day following the date you receive this letter - before authorizing us to file suit against you to collect this debt.

The state Rosenthal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act and the federal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act require that, except under unusual circumstances, collectors may not contact you before 8 a.m. or after 9 p.m. They may not harass you by using threats of violence or arrest or by using obscene language. Collectors may not use false or misleading statements or call you at work if they know or have reason to know that you may not receive personal calls at work. For the most part, collectors may not tell another person, other than your attorney or spouse, about your debt. Collectors may contact another person, to confirm your location or enforce a judgment. For more information about debt collection activities, you may contact the Federal Trade Commission at 1-877-FTC-HELP (1-877-382-4357) or www.ftc.gov.

This communication is from a debt collector. This letter is an attempt to collect a debt and any information obtained will be used for that purpose.

Dear Ms. Henriques:

I have attached a copy of your most recent correspondence for your reference. Please be advised that the consumer debtor in the matter referenced above has retained the services of the Consumer Law Center, Inc., to assist in this matter. The purpose of this letter is two-fold. First, I wish to provide you with written notice in your capacity as a creditor, collection agent, or collection attorney that this consumer debtor, now our client, is in fact and in law REPRESENTED BY AN ATTORNEY. As a result of this notice, and pursuant to Sections 1692b(6) and 1692c(a)(2) of Title 15 of the United States Code and Section 1788.14(c) of the California Civil Code, you are to immediately terminate any further direct or indirect contacts with our client. Please note that such prohibited contacts include, but are not limited to, all forms of communication by letter, phone, fax, email or any other means. This also includes any contact directly or indirectly with any employer, family member, friend, or other creditor of our client.

Second, this letter is intended to dissuade your firm from filing a lawsuit against our client and reducing the amount that is allegedly owed to a judgment. Should you choose to file a lawsuit against our client in this matter, please be advised that I have reviewed with our client the list of California exemptions provided by the Judicial Council of California and I have determined that our client owns no property that could be subject to attachment or levy. Furthermore, our client's only source of income is Social Security and pension benefits which are likewise exempt under both state and federal law. Our client is therefore "judgment proof." Should you decide to reduce the amount allegedly owed to a judgment, it will remain uncollectible.

Upon receipt of this letter, any future direct or indirect contacts with our client will result in our office filing a claim against you under the Federal Fair Debt Collection Act, the California Civil Code, and any other available and applicable state or federal laws. If it becomes necessary to file any and all such claims, then please be advised and take due notice that our client will be seeking actual damages, statutory damages, court costs, and our reasonable attorney fees based on our hourly rate of $ 350.00. You are also hereby placed on notice that if unlawful and illegal conduct persists or is egregious, then our client will also seek an award of punitive damages as may be determined at the discretion of the Court.

Based on the foregoing, any further communications concerning our client and/or the subject debt must be directed to the Consumer Law Center, Inc. Be advised that any request for information will be addressed in a reasonable time period.

Until advised otherwise, you should mark this matter as "disputed" pursuant to U.S.C. §§ 1692e(8) and 1692g(b). I anticipate your cooperation herein.

Finally, please note that our client is a senior citizen and any further collection communications will cause her undue stress and anxiety. See Cal. Civil Code § 3345.

Very Truly Yours,

Fred W. Schwinn, Esq.
